Dussault Zips "it" Up ~ theitlists.com

http://www.theitlists.com/2008/07/29/dussault-zips-%e2%80%9c%e2%80%9d-up-theit...

When I joined the Burlesque Beauties at their gig at the Playboy Mansion, we did a little detour to visit Vancouver's Canadian designer, Jason Dussault and his L.A. location, the Dussault Apparel™ Motel Store. The themed store is designed to look like a creepy 1970's roadside motel, and is famous for shutting down part of Melrose Avenue for it's grand opening launch co-hosted by Dussault's business partner in the MoneyBag fashion line, Gene Simmons. I couldn't leave without a Dussault hoodie 'cause once you put one on you're sold. It starts with the butter-soft, faux mink lined pockets and hood.
