High-fashion meets high function with bags, ideal for travel

September 09, 2008 (USA)

Dussault Apparel Founder, Chairman and Head Designer, Jason Dussault, is pleased to announce the arrival of the Dussault Messenger Bag and Carry-On Bag.

This is not your dad's briefcase, or your metro friend's man purse. Forget about carrying on your old gym bag, or worrying when the flight attendant warns "many bags look alike." The Dussault Apparel Messenger Bag and Carry-On Bag epitomize function and distinctive style. Made of 100% Italian cowhide leather and embellished with gold, silver or black chrome hardware and logo tags, these handcrafted pieces will suit your lifestyle.

The Dussault Messenger Bag is perfectly sized for a 17-inch laptop and is insulated to protect your computer from damage. It provides several pockets inside to organize everything you need (Blackberry, business cards, tea-cup poodles).

The Dussault Carry-On Bag offers convenient features such as an extending handle and wheels, detachable shoulder strap and handles. A variety of pockets, both inside and out, make this an ideal bag for travel. Whether preparing for a weekend in Vegas or jet-setting to Dubai, the Carry-On Bag's spaciousness and durability enables you to avoid airline luggage fees.

Jason Dussault comments, "I wanted to create a laptop bag, carry-on bag and wallet that exemplified the same quality as brands such as Louis Vuitton, Coach, Fendi or Tumi, and enhance it with our own unique edge. These pieces are beautiful and unique in form and design, and I am proud to have my name attached to these limited edition pieces of art."

Both styles are available in brown or black leather with skull (large or small) or clover print. The Dussault Carry-On Bag with clover print is also available in white. Additionally, these pieces are available in the Gene Simmons Moneybag edition, featuring his trademark print.

Every bag features a "Limited Edition" plaque to indicate its number out of the 1000 pieces made throughout the world. All Dussault leather goods are made by the same manufacturers as brands Coach and Tumi.
